What is Speed Networking?

- A Quick Way to Expand Your Professional Contacts
- Networking can be one of the most powerful and productive activities an individual can do to launch and manage their career.
- Building relationships is the core of a person's success, effectiveness both personally and professionally.

Sample Discussion Questions

1. What is your career/ industry field?
2. Where do you work?
3. How long have you been employed there?
4. What are your career goals?
5. Why did you get into your current field?
6. Did you need any specialized training?
7. Do you have any ASQ Certifications?
8. What is the most challenging aspect of your current job?
9. What do you love most about your job?
10. What are some of your career challenges?
11. What advice would you give to someone who is interested in your field?
12. Where do you see yourself in 5 years?
13. Do you plan to stay in your career field or try to break into a new one?
14. Which of your current skills would you like to draw upon most in the next phase of your career?

Ground Rules for Speed Networking

- Have fun! The fast pace of this kind of event contributes to a high level of energy in the room.
- Allow 2-5 minutes for each round; the leader will inform the group about the time frame.
- As you meet each person exchange names and business cards.
- Introduce yourself and begin to tell one another your story.
- Be extremely aware of the time line so each person has the opportunity to speak.
- Take notes on the back of your partner's business card for later review
- Respect the process by ending your conversation after the bell and move onto the next person.

Lets Get Started

- Please divide into two lines and face each other.
- Each person should be facing someone else.
- You will have five minutes to introduce yourself and to get to know the person who is facing you.
- When you hear the Bell move to the left onto the next position.

Thank You!
